A message from the committee...

We would like to welcome you and invite your participation in the 2019 Speech and Drama Festival.

We are delighted to share our innovative syllabus with a wide variety of sections on offer, for individual and groupwork, as well as prepared and improvised work.

We are excited to introduce an Improvisation workshop presented by Claudine Ullman from Jittery Citizens as part of the festival. This is open to both teachers and students post matric. It will be suitable for Primary School teachers, High School teachers and teachers who have their own studios.

Professional Development Workshop

Date: Sunday 24th February

Venue: Sandton Primary School (141 Coleraine Drive, Sandton)

Time: 9:00-10:30am

Cost: R250 per participant
R150 for members of the Speech and Drama College (SA)

Facilitator: Claudine Ullman from Jittery Citizens

Our aim is for teachers to gain ideas that can be replicated/ adapted for classrooms and to be inspired to try new things in their work.

A certificate of participation will be presented.

Improv is the ability to create something magical out of nothing and we at Jittery Citizens equip teachers with the tools to not only operate from top of intelligence but give them the necessary skills to prepare lessons that are dynamic, engaging and loads of fun. Improvisational theatre is a fantastic tool in any classroom. It helps students learn to be agile, reacting and responding to unexpected situations, and builds confidence and creative abilities.

GET READY FOR A HIGHLY ENTERTAINING SESSION LEARNING THROUGH LAUGHTER AND PLAY!

On behalf of the Festival Committee for 2019 we look forward to an enjoyable, professional and productive Festival.

Ros Jaff, Romy Levin and Vicki Mervis (Convenors)
